

AABD VACANCY FOR THE POSITION OF VP- MEMBERSHIP

Registered members of the Academy of African Business and Development [AABD] are invited to apply for the position of the Vice-President (VP) for Membership that has become vacant.

Role and Responsibility

The Vice President for Membership is one of the six elected executive members who form the executive committee of the AABD. The VP for Membership is responsible for coordinating with the country representatives of the AABD to attain membership goals. He/she is also responsible for growing the membership of the AABD, as well as developing, maintaining, and growing the AABD's database of current and potential members.

The Person

Any person who is up to date with membership dues for the AABD and wants to apply for the position is welcome to send a letter of interest together with a current curriculum vitae (CV) to Professor James Abugre, the Executive Secretary of the AABD through: jbabugre@ug.edu.gh